Blessing of the Scarves August 14 both worship services

Join us Sunday, August 14 when members of the Yarn Ministry will once again be bringing their gifts of knitted and crocheted scarves and hats to be blessed.

Dr. Tom Whinery will be traveling to Romania in early September for his yearly mission of hope and healing through outreach and dental care.

We are encouraged to pray for Tom and the other members of his group as they travel and spread the Gospel. And we look forward to hearing a report from them about their adventure when they return!

Y'ALL COME SUNDAY

August 28 9:45 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary

It's time, once again, for our traditional Y'all Come Sunday! All adult Sunday School classes will meet together in the Sanctuary for a combined class of conversation and fellowship. Join us to learn more about the classes that are available now and more educational opportunities for adults that are being planned for this next year.

We are called by the Holy Spirit into a loving relationship with Jesus Christ, glorifying God, growing in faith, serving others and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

From the Pastor ...

Something to Think About

Who is your master in life?

Paul begins his letter to the Roman Christians by identifying himself as “a slave of Christ Jesus.” The use of the word “slave” in the New Living Translation may seem odd to you, even extreme. The vast majority of English translations prefer the word “servant.” But the Greek original of Romans contains the word doulos, which means “slave.” It was used to refer to someone who was owned by a master. The Message captures the sense of the Greek by having Paul identify himself as “a devoted slave of Jesus Christ.”

Like Paul, you and I are slaves of Christ. It’s hard for us to hear this language in the way it was once intended, given the shameful history of slavery in the United States. Nevertheless, we mustn’t ignore the fact that we are not servants hired by an employer, but slaves who belong to a master. He purchased us, not with money, but with his own blood. Thus we belong to one who has given everything for us, who loves us and wants the very best for us. Our slavery is not bondage so much as “a better freedom,” to use Michael Card’s apt phrase.

As we look ahead to the end of Summer and the beginning of a new school year, perhaps we should pause to ask ourselves who will be our master through this coming fall and next year. Will we be slaves to reputation? To money? To security? To work? To family? To alcohol? Or will we live as slaves of Christ, serving him in all things, and discovering what it means to live in the freedom of his grace? I hope as you pause and contemplate this Question and the following ones you will begin each day in the “better freedom” of the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION: Who is your master in life, really? Or, perhaps it would be better to say, who are your masters? Have you experienced the “better freedom” that comes with being a slave of Christ? How might you live differently this year if you were to acknowledge Jesus as your sole master?

I hope that as you ponder this ‘Better Freedom’ you can pray these words with me, “Lord Jesus Christ, my Master, I’m reminded by Paul that I am not just your servant, but your slave. You purchased me with your own blood, offering your life for mine. So I belong to you because of this gracious gift.

I must confess there is something in me that resists seeing myself as your slave. I want to run my own life, to be the master. Thus it’s hard for me to submit to you, even though I know you want the very best for me. Forgive me, Lord, when I become the master of my own life. Forgive me for being afraid to submit my life to you.

As I begin this new year, may I do so as your slave. May I offer myself fully to you each day, living with you as my master. In so doing, may I discover the "better freedom" that you offer to me.

To you be all the glory, my Master! Amen.

See you Sunday!,
Pastor Craig Sanders

NEW DAY: gearing up for school to start again!

This month we only made up three bags of food as no others were requested for the students in summer school at Sam Houston High School. However, the beginning of school is fast approaching and we need to build up our food supplies to be ready to feed any students needing our help.

Remember also — the school does not allow anything with peanut butter all cans must have pop-top lids. Thanks for all you do to feed God's hungry teens who are striving to get an education under difficult circumstances. Remember them in your prayers too — they are our neighbors.

In case you have forgotten this is what we pack in our bags for these students:

Tuna or Chicken Salad w/crackers kits
Vienna Sausage
Pasta
100% Juices
Shelf stable milk
Fruit in small containers
Vegetables in small containers
Pudding
Cereal (Small boxes)
Chips, cookies or other snacks

Thank you! Joan Smith

Help us stay connected to our college students!

The Pastoral Care Ministry has posted a board of college students similar to the one of our military people, so please supply us with a photo.

Needed information:

- Name of student
- Place of higher education
- Mailing address
- Phone (cell phone for text messages)
- E-mail address
- Photo (digital in .jpeg format)

You can e-mail this information to louie@nashfolk.net or deliver to the College & Careers classroom in 106.

The school year has started and the College & Careers Sunday School Class is in need of each of our college and graduate students' contact information. We would like to stay in contact with each of them by sending cards on their birthdays and words of encouragement.

Taking care of our building ... it's a job for all of us!

Thank you Youth!

The Youth Group had a work day at the church on July 6th and did they work! They did the following:

- Cleaned the youth room including shampooing the carpet. Smells much nicer in there now.
 - Cleaned and mopped the kitchen
 - Mopped the bathrooms
 - Shampooed the carpet in the Narthex
 - Weeded the playground
 - Removed the dead bushes around the labyrinth
- Many thanks! Our Youth are awesome!!!

Other thanks

Thanks to Howard Livingston and Dave Kinkel for taking down the old basketball goal and thanks to Howard and Jim Smith for installing the new one.

Air conditioning units

We had two air conditioning units go down in mid-July — the youth and toddler room system and the education building unit controlling rooms 111, 109, library, and junior high room.

Fortunately, they only needed small repairs — a timer switch on the outside unit of one and a topping off of refrigerant on the other. Thanks to Howard Livingston and Grant Air Conditioning for getting these units running quickly.

General fire and safety issues:

1. We need to keep a 30" clearance around electrical panel boxes. We have designated these areas with yellow and black hazard tape. Absolutely nothing should be placed in these areas.
2. Doors to the sanctuary and the classrooms need to be closed except when in use. These are fire doors designed to slow the spread of fire. During our own inspection this week, eight doors were wedged open. Please have your ministries close these doors before exiting the building.
3. There should be no obstructions to exit doors, exit ways, or corridors.
4. Several times in the last month the exit doors have been left unlocked overnight. This is a major safety concern. Please lock the doors when exiting the building.

Reaching out

Our building is used every day of the week (by people who are not members at Grace) to serve people in our community!

It's okay to be human

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it is a sign of weakness. So we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others — and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray and help you through a tough time. Men are matched with men, and women with women. (It's completely confidential too!) To find out more about Stephen Ministry for yourself or someone you know, talk with our Stephen Ministry Leader: Contact Louie Nash 817-465-1957 or louie@nashfolk.net

Praying for our neighbors ... won't you join us?

The Congregation of Grace Presbyterian Church prayed for you today.

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessing upon this household today. In faith we ask that you bring healing in body, mind and spirit. In love we ask that you strengthen relationships and mend any broken ones. Trusting you we ask that you build up those who live here. We ask that you provide sustenance each and every day. In your holy name we pray. Amen.

Community Prayer Walk On Sundays in July we began delivering door hangers and prayed for our neighbors living in homes just south of the church on Nathan Lowe, Mansfield Road, Calumet and Paddockview. Each Sunday we will continue our ministry in the neighborhood just south of us. The door hangers can easily be placed in about 20 minutes with three walkers and a driver. (The driver drops you off at your street and picks you up when you are finished.) If you are able to help after church on Sunday, please sign up on the red board in the Narthex. If you have any questions about this ongoing effort by the Encouragement and Nurture Ministry, please visit with Kate Juengerman (kate_juengerman@sbcglobal.net) or Bill O'Mary (l.wm@sbcglobal.net).

Troop 421 News: staying cool this summer!

Go jump in a lake ...

That is exactly what the boys did on Saturday, July 23rd at Joe Pool Lake. The boys swam, canoed, kayaked, sailed, and motor boated the entire day. A troop cook-out finished the day.

This outing was originally scheduled as a tubing trip on a river, but due to the drought that would have been a real drag.

Go crawl in a hole ...

In August the troop will go on a weekend campout featuring a spelunking adventure at Longhorn Caverns.

Yearning for spiritual renewal? Try Pilgrimage ... Oct. 19-23!

The first Pilgrimage in North Texas will be at Lake Lavon this Fall. Mark your calendar for October 19 - 23, 2011. This is the date for NTPP #31. For an on-line application: <http://ntpp.org/>

Pilgrimage is the new name for Cursillo. In the past, Cursillo was based on inviting Presbyterian church members or someone who was connected to a PCUSA church. The new Pilgrimage is open to everyone — your neighbors, long time friends, your cousin, associates at work, the person who serves you at Starbucks, etc. The sky is the limit for whom you may invite to a Pilgrimage in the future. This gives us more opportunities to share Christ's love with all God's people.

Mark your calendars!

Summer lessons for our children will last a lifetime!

Summer Sunday School

The children are enjoying their summer lessons!

- In July they had a special visit from Pastor Craig who told them about the journey of Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem, their flight to Egypt with Jesus, and then their return to Nazareth. After Pastor Craig's wonderful lesson, the children made maps which depicted the travels of the family.

- Also in July, our young learners made a "mural" of what the town of Nazareth may have looked like when Jesus was a boy, and found out a lot about what his life there might have been like.

The "Nazareth" unit is giving them some extra "background knowledge" for this summer's VBS: Hometown NAZARETH: Where Jesus Was a Kid.

Christian Symbols Art Show

Get ready for the 2011 Christian Symbols Art Show, brought to you by the children of Grace! Their beautiful work from Summer Sunday School classes will be on display in the Narthex on August 28. Be sure to tell the children how much you enjoy the show.

Thank you ...

VBS

VBS is now upon us: August 1-5. Thanks to all of you who are participating as staff.

As with many of our church family events, VBS provides a wonderful opportunity for our members to work together for a great cause. VBS is an important building block in the lives of our children, and they will remember this year's experience for a long, long time. Your participation will make it all the more important to them. Thank you, all.

Pilates! Come stretch with us!

Have you noticed that several of the women of our church seem a bit more “peppy” these days?! It is because there are about 10 of us who have been faithfully attending the pilates classes that have been offered this summer.

We have four more weeks to go before our wonderful instructor, Brittany Bean, returns to college. Before she leaves we will be making a video tape that we will use to keep our workouts on track. We are also exploring other videos that will enable us to extend our workouts through the fall and hopefully into the winter months.

We would love for you to join us! Beginning in September our classes will be FREE for everyone. All you need is a mat and comfortable clothes.

Monday, August 1 we are “skipping” class to go eat at McKinley’s at 1612 South University Drive in Fort Worth at 5:00 p.m.

Thursday, August 3 we are moving class to the home of JoAnne Burris 2115 Emerald Lake in Arlington.

After that we are back on schedule: — at the church
Mondays and Thursdays 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and on Saturdays we meet from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.

The Six Great Ends of the Church

*as set forth in the Presbyterian Church,
USA Book of Order:*

- 1. The proclamation of the Gospel for the salvation of mankind
- 2. The shelter, nurture, and spiritual fellowship of the children of God
- 3. The maintenance of divine worship
- 4. The preservation of the truth
- 5. The promotion of social righteousness
- 6. The exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the World.

The Worship Ministry reminds each of us of these foundational beliefs of our denomination and our church.

2011 Christian Book of the Year and Winner in the Non-Fiction Category

Bonhoeffer: Pastor, Martyr, Prophet, Spy
by Eric Metaxas

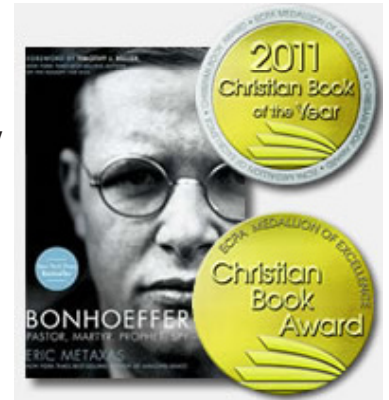

From Publishers Weekly:
In this weighty, riveting analysis of the life of

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Metaxas (Amazing Grace) offers a comprehensive review of one of history's darkest eras, along with a fascinating exploration of the familial, cultural and religious influences that formed one of the world's greatest contemporary theologians

A passionate narrative voice combines with meticulous research to unpack the confluence of circumstances and personalities that led Germany from the defeat of WWI to the atrocities of WWII. Abundant source documentation (sermons, letters, journal entries, lectures, the Barman Declaration) brings to life the personalities and experiences that shaped Bonhoeffer: his highly intellectual, musical family; theologically liberal professors, pastoral colleagues and students; his extensive study, work, and travel abroad.

Tracing Bonhoeffer's developing call to be a Jeremiah-like prophet in his own time and a growing understanding that the church was called "to speak for those who could not speak," Metaxas details Bonhoeffer's role in religious resistance to Nazism, and provides a compelling account of the faith journey that eventually involved the Lutheran pastor in unsuccessful attempts to assassinate Hitler. Insightful and illuminating, this tome makes a powerful contribution to biography, history and theology.

Attention all Sunday School Teachers: Use our Library!

Recently, Ann Pennington asked me what books we had in the library on "Women of the Bible." She explained that her Bible study class was beginning a study of "Women of the Bible." I went to look and discovered we could definitely use more.

That set off a shopping frenzy to Barnes & Noble where about six or eight new books on the study of "Women of the Bible" were added to our library collection. Many attendees have commented on how helpful the books were to increasing their knowledge on the subject.

I have always thought that the main purpose of the library at Grace was to support the curriculum of the church, but I've not been able to "make it happen." So, if the teachers would let me know the topics of their Sunday School group next fall, I can look for books that would support that course of study.

While I was looking for books on "Women of the Bible," I also found a couple of books on "Men of the Bible" which might make an excellent topic of study! So ...

ATTENTION:

All Sunday School Teachers

If you are planning to teach in the fall, please get in touch with Becky Menti!

I need to know your course of study so that we can coordinate resources to reinforce your curriculum. Need more Veggie Tales DVD's? More Bible references? Let me know ASAP.

And as a church member, we always welcome your suggestions! You may call me at home: 817-483-5022 or e-mail me at bmenti@att.net
